

Off Campus Study, Study Abroad Programs, and Internships

---

ISP Policy Regarding Off Campus Study or Study Abroad Programs:

Iraqi Student Project scholars may participate in off campus study or study abroad given the following conditions:

- The Off Campus Study or Study Abroad program is an officially sanctioned and approved college/university program which complements and/or meets the major department requirements of the ISP Scholar;
- Costs will be covered by the ISP Scholar's institution and/or funds from the ISP Scholar not from the ISP Scholar's support group or ISP national;
- Participation does not extend the ISP Scholar's course of study (time to complete degree) at the US institution;
- Neither ISP nor the ISP Scholar's support group is responsible for any visa issues or travel emergencies which arise from participation in the off campus or study abroad program;

The ISP policy for off campus study or study abroad would apply to any ISP Scholar in the US.

---

ISP Policy Regarding Internships:

Internship Policy Statement:

Iraqi Student Project Scholars may participate in internships given the following conditions:

- The internship program complements and/or meets the major department requirements of the ISP Scholar or is an officially sanctioned and approved college/university program or is an internship program known to ISP national or the ISP Scholar's support group.
- Costs will be covered by the ISP Scholar's institution and/or funds from the Scholar not from the Scholar's support group or ISP national;
- The appropriate work permit has been applied for and granted;
- Neither ISP nor the ISP Scholar's support group is responsible for any travel emergencies which arise from participation in the internship program;

The ISP policy for internships applies to any ISP Scholar in the US.